

GCERF engages Ghana as a partner country facing significant violent extremist threats due to various factors but also impacted by the increased recent violence in Burkina Faso. With its community-based approach to P/CVE, GCERF's emergency investment directly contributes to implementing Ghana's National Action Plan (NAP).

Investment Focus

-  Promote preventive approaches to VE and support addressing tensions between Burkinabe refugees and host communities that may translate into radicalisation
-  Binduri, Garu, and Sissala West
-  Vulnerable women and youth from refugee and host communities
-  December 2023 – November 2024
-  Engagement with Ministry of National Security, Accra Initiative and donor representatives in preparation of upcoming GCERF investment strategy for Ghana

Current investment

-  Ghana
-  Upper West
-  Upper East

Investment Started 2023
Emergency funding:
300,000 USD

Portfolio overview as of June 2024

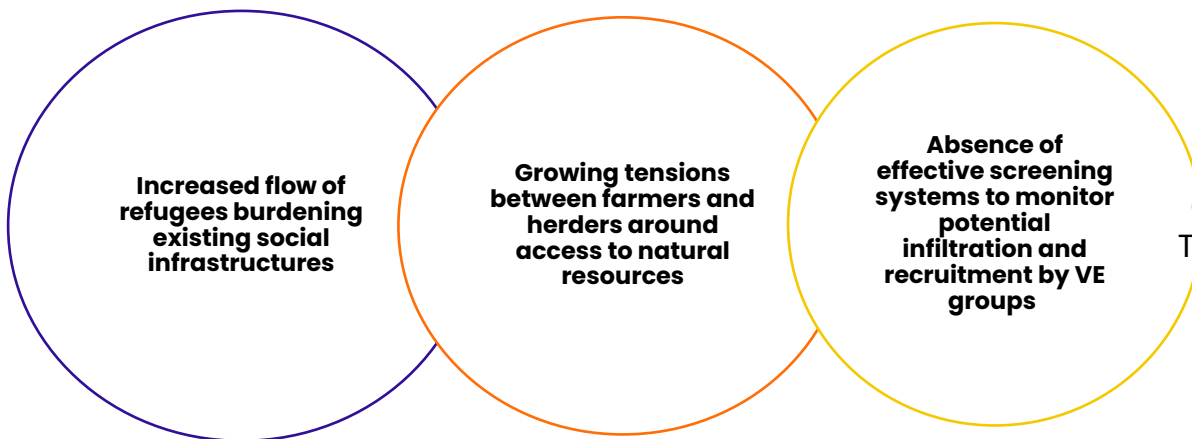

Star-Ghana Foundation

Building Resilience Against Violent Extremism (BRAVE) in Vulnerable Communities

- ❖ Establishment of a revolving fund scheme for women to further increase capital in their micro-enterprises in each area of intervention.
- ❖ Provide economic skills/apprenticeship to women for up to 9 months in line with the national guidelines on vocational skills programmes in each area of intervention.
- ❖ Training on digital literacy of 10 trainers among beneficiaries in each area of intervention.
- ❖ Roll out of digital literacy training clubs for 200 youth members among host and refugee youth.

EOI launched in June 2024, supported by a FAQ provided to 26 local CSOs.

Violent Extremism in Northern Ghana: Drivers

89th

On the Global
Terrorism Index
2024

Find out more about becoming an investor, our work, and the collective impact we make at: www.gcerf.org contact.ghana@gcerf.org

 @gcerf

 @thegcerf

 GCERF

 GCERF Outreach

GCERF
Geneva, Switzerland