Baseline Assessment
Comprehensive assessment of the situation by gathering baseline data before implementation.

Theory of Change & Results Framework (RF)
GCERF supports local partners in developing Theory of Change, and RF with indicators and targets.

Ex-post Evaluation
GCERF might commission an evaluation to assess the sustainability of project outcomes. It would occur one year or more after the project’s completion.

Due Diligence
Potential grantees’ M&E capacities are assessed as part of the selection process for funding.

Investment Strategy with Theory of Change / Indicators
Objectives, Theory of Change, and standard indicators are developed for each country or regional portfolio.

Third-party Monitoring
GCERF often commissions a third party to assess and evaluate the actual implementation of the project.

Advisor, Secretariat Visits
Various parties such as GCERF National Advisors and the Secretariat monitor programming on the ground using a structured national monitoring tool.

Due Diligence
Potential grantees’ M&E capacities are assessed as part of the selection process for funding.

End-line Assessment
At the end of the project, grantees conduct exercises to gather final data on the outcomes and assess the results.

Ex-post Evaluation
GCERF might commission an evaluation to assess the sustainability of project outcomes. It would occur one year or more after the project’s completion.

Quarterly Reporting and Review
The grantees report quarterly progress, which GCERF reviews against the programme objectives.

Completion Report
Grantees submit a final report to GCERF, including the achievement of the project outputs and outcomes.

Country/Regional Evaluation
GCERF might commission an evaluation of the portfolio and its investment strategy.

Country/Regional Board Report
GCERF consolidates the results reported by grantees and any external exercise into a final Board report.

Measurement Throughout Implementation
Country-level indicators are incorporated into grants, and measured at different stages of the grants implementation.

Baseline Assessment
Comprehensive assessment of the situation by gathering baseline data before implementation.

Measurement and Annual Reporting
Progress in each indicator is reported every year, tracking achievement towards targets.

Review of GCERF Strategy (inc. External Evaluation)
GCERF reviews the results of its Strategic cycle, which includes the commission of an external evaluation to assess GCERF itself.

Quarterly Reporting and Review
The grantees report quarterly progress, which GCERF reviews against the programme objectives.

Advisor, Secretariat Visits
Various parties such as GCERF National Advisors and the Secretariat monitor programming on the ground using a structured national monitoring tool.

Completion Report
Grantees submit a final report to GCERF, including the achievement of the project outputs and outcomes.

End-of-grant Evaluation
GCERF commissions a third party to evaluate the results of the project, often using OECD-DAC evaluation criteria.
